KILLED

In a Tunnel Near Cairo is Joe Davis, Colored, of This City.

A Parkersburg newspaper gives the following account of the death of a Clarksburg negro on the railroad near Cairo Wednesday:
The mangled body of a colored man was found in the Baltimore and Ohio tunnel about a mile east of Cairo this morning, who is supposed to have been killed by a train some time during the night. He is described as being about thirty-five or forty years old and was fairly well dressed. The body was taken to the McGregor undertaking establishment at Cairo, where it will be held for a few days for identification. In one of the pockets of the man's clothes was found a slip of paper on which was an address which appeared to be "Jesse Day, 42 5th street."

Investigation made here would indicate that the dead man is Joe Davis, of Clarksburg, who with some other colored men were here attending federal court as witnesses in the case of a man named Blake, who was indicted for bootlegging. While here Jesse Day, a young colored man employed in his father's restaurant at 425 Sixth street, gave his name and address, to Davis on a slip of paper. Davis is said to have left here Tuesday night, intending to ride a freight train to Clarksburg, and with him were Ed Stewart and John Left, both of that place.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT

Clarksburg Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It.

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Clarksburg given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

Mrs. J. W. Harden, 231 Jackson St., Clarksburg, W. Va., says: "I was in poor health for years and I now believe that my kidneys were the cause of all my suffering. I had a dull, bearing-down pain across my loins and at times I was in such bad shape that I could hardly get about. The kidney secretions bothered me, my head ached and my ankles swelled. In the morning when I got up, there were puffy spots beneath my eyes. Soon after I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which were procured at the City Drug Store, I felt better and today I am enjoying good health. I take pleasure in confirming all I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I publicly endorsed them some years ago."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Advertisement.

In the Capitol as Result of Not Going to Washington Sooner.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The three new Republican congressmen who will join with Representative Hughes and a couple of Democrats in representing West Virginia in the next Congress have all been here, looking over the field and getting pointers on what a member of Congress has to do and how he does it. Howard Sutherland, member at large, has been over several times, but he has often been here before and is more or less familiar with the duties he will have when he comes here to assume his new office. Captain Avis spent several days here the first of the year and prepared himself in many ways for the session which will begin soon after the fourth of March.

Judge H. H. Moss, Jr., of Parkersburg, was the last of the new congressmen-elect to reach the national capital, but he has completed his visit here. He found that he should have come sooner, for in the new Congress there will not be as many office rooms in the big House office building as there are members of the House. Some of them will be officeless, and Judge Moss, not having been apprised about the matter, found himself to be one of those for whom no provision had been made as to an office. Other congressmen had applied for all the rooms there are in the building and he will have to join several other new members in a building which it is proposed to rent for the use of those who are crowded out of the office building.

The members-elect have the privilege of the floor while here and Judge Moss enjoyed his first day on the floor of the House. He was introduced by Representative Hamilton, whom he will succeed.

REGENTS

Are Holding a Meeting in the Office of the State Superintendent.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 22.—A special meeting of the Board of Regents is on in the office of the state superintendent of free schools. The principal purpose of the meeting is to make appointment of a number of spring term teachers at the schools under the supervision of this board. Another matter of business to come before the board is along legislative lines. It was expected when the meeting was called some time ago that the legislature would by this time be at work, after organization, and it would then be timely for the board to recommend what it wants.

President Thomas E. Hodges, of the university, is present to offer some suggestions relative to the needs of the institution of which he is the head. The members of the board are: M. P. Shawkey, ex officio chairman; Col. E. W. Oglebay, Wheeling; J. B. Finley, Parkersburg; G. A. Northcott, Huntington, and George S. Laidley, Charleston.

EXTINCTION

Of Pacific Game Fishes
Prompt Efforts to Preserve Them.

NEW YORK CITY, Jan. 23.—Threatened extinction of the great game fishes of the Pacific coast has led the American Game Protective and Propagation Association, of New York, to join with Southern California sportsmen in their efforts to preserve them. Among these fish are the largest specimens of the finny tribe which are taken on hook and line. For game qualities combined with great size, no other fish has equaled the tuna, and there are half a dozen species of even greater weight which have attracted anglers from all over the world to Southern California.

These fish spawn in the kelp where they are taken in such numbers by net fishermen that the future of the supply is in serious danger. Mr. Charles F. Holder, as chairman of the Los Angeles committee, has recommended to the state legislature that netting be prohibited within the distance of three miles of the shores of Catalina Island, and it is hoped that a law will be passed this winter which will give the fish this necessary statutory protection.

H. P. Lambert, of Pensacola, is looking after business affairs here.

W. W. Jamieson, a former resident of the city, is here from Waterford, O.
